

The Wine List

We hope you will enjoy your selections from our wine list as much as we have enjoyed putting it together. We have chosen all these wines, personally, with our wine merchants and have tasted almost all of them. They all have a purpose on the list - even if it is just that we like them! Do please ask me or any member of my team for advice or information about the wines. We are always looking for new matches with Adam's menus so do please tell us of any combination you find that really works.

All table and quality wines have an alcoholic content between 7.5% and 15%. From time to time vintages may run out due to the exclusive nature of the fine wines on our list. Should this occur, we will endeavour to offer a suitable alternative. Measures for still wines by the glass, 250ml, for sparkling wines 125ml.
