

29	Fire Road Sauvignon Blanc 2004, Marlborough New Zealand Zesty and lively with delicious notes of gooseberry and passion fruit		£23	51	Chateau La Grange 2005, Bordeaux France A soft rounded wine with earthy notes and plummy fruit character	£
30	Camel Valley Atlantic Dry 2005, Cornwall This is a well-balanced, aromatic and complex wine made from a long, slow, cool fermentation in stainless steel. A perfect match for Cornish Seafood!		£22	53	Bourgogne Pinot Noir 2004, Sorin, Burgundy France Summer berry fruit, perfumed notes with a touch of spice	£
31	Tyrrells Moore's Creek Chardonnay 2003, Australia Citrus and peach flavours are balanced by fresh acidity and a touch of richness on the finish		£19	54	La Prade Mari "Les Secret de Fontenille" 2004, Minervois Soft, luscious damson and redcurrant fruits with velvet-smooth tannins	£
32	Willowglen Riesling 2004, Australia Dry in style with lime fruit swirling around tropical richness		£18	55	Cotes du Ventoux 2004 Vidal Fleury, Rhone France A soft and elegant Rhone red with spicy notes and a soft finish	£
33	Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2005, New Zealand Rated as one of the world's top Sauvignon Blancs, highly sought after and rarely seen on wine lists		£35	N/A	Chateau La Vallée 2001, Montagne St Emillon France Ripe Bordeaux with a plummy character, a touch of cedar and soft tannins	£
34	Santenay Comme-Dessus 2002, Burgundy Stunning wine with peach and pear notes, underlying vanilla richness and a touch of lime on the finish		£33	57	Marius Reserva 2001, Spain A great alternative to Rioja. Spicy red fruit aromas, medium bodied with a hint of vanilla	£
35	Pouilly-Fume 'Les Chailloux' 2005, Jean-Claude Chatelain, France An ultra elegant Sauvignon Blanc from the Loire Valley, clean, fresh, grassy characters with a mineral backbone making it a superb wine with fish		£30	58	Anares Crianza 2003, Rioja Spain A lovely mellow Rioja with fruit and oak in good measure, full of flavour and easily enjoyed.	£
36	Chateau Ste Michelle Pinot Gris 2004, Columbia Valley, USA Aromas and flavours of ripe honeydew melon and sweet citrus. Delicate, elegant finish and refreshing crispness that makes it very food-friendly		£24	59	Chateau Ste Michelle Syrah 2002, Columbia Valley, USA The Columbia and Yakima Valley in Washington State are particularly suited to producing some fine red wines, this Syrah amongst them. White pepper spice aromas lead to a palate of blackberry jam and rich cherry flavours	£
Rosé Wine				60	Montepulciano D'Abruzzo 2005, Italy Medium bodied with ripe, juicy, soft and jammy red fruit flavours	£
40	Orvalaiz Rosada 2005, Spain Soft summer berry fruit, rich with an off dry finish	Glass:	£17 £6	61	Vergelegen Mill Race Cabernet Sauvignon 2003, South Africa Wonderful warm cassis fruit, smooth with excellent balance of fruit and tannin	£
41	Chateau Lancyre Rosé 2005, Pic St Loup, France Fresh and dry with a delicious creamy character		£19	62	Estampa Carmenère Merlot 2004, Chile Bouncy plummy red fruit, smooth with silky tannins	£
42	Château du Galoupet Rosé 2005, Côtes de Provence, France Dry summer berry notes mingle with delicious mineral complexity and a clean crisp finish		£24	63	Tyrrells Moore's Creek Shiraz 2004, Australia Deep dark fruit, a touch of cassis with a long peppery finish	£
Red Wine				64	Omrah Pinot Noir 2004, Australia Hints of cinnamon and spice with strawberry notes and a touch of vanilla	£
45	Candidato Tempranillo 2004, Vino de la Tierra de Castilla, Spain 3 months barrel ageing adds some spiciness and structure to the Tempranillo fruit. Smooth, mellow and full of cherry-like flavour	Glass:	£14 £5	66	Vasse Felix Cabernet Sauvignon 2002 Western Australia Seriously deep and inky: well-rounded and curranty with notes of chocolate and oak	£
46	Grenache Noir Le Caprice 2005 Youthful, juicy wine with a spicy, typical Grenache, peppery palate	Glass:	£14 £5	67	Chateau Langoa Barton 1996, Saint Julian France 3ère Cru Classe. A property that has gone from strength to strength under Anthony Barton's inspired direction. Classy cedary St. Julien nose with lovely elegance, ripe fruit and good length	£
47	Short Mile Bay Shiraz 2004 Rich and spicy with much fruit and spice integrating well in this complex wine		£16	All table and quality wines have an alcoholic content between 7.5% and 15%. From time to time vintages may run out due to the exclusive nature of the fine wines on our list. Should this occur we will endeavour to offer a suitable alternative.
48	Notre Chico Merlot 2005 Central Valley Easy, supple Chilean Merlot with soft, sunny fruit	Glass:	£16 £5.50	Our champagne, sparkling wine and dessert wine is served as 125ml and all other wines are 250ml.
49	Sacred Hill Shiraz Cabernet 2005, Australia Soft spicy red berry notes followed by gentle tannins	Glass:	£17 £6
50	Cotes du Rhone 2005, La Dentelière Medium bodied with warm, spicy fruit on the nose and palate		£16

The Wine List

Champagne and Sparkling Wine

- |           |  |        |
|-----------|--|--------|
| 10 | Camel Valley Brut "Cornwall" 2003Made a few miles up river from Padstow, an excellent Traditional Method sparkling wine showing impressive finesse                         | £      |
| 11 | Charles de Saint Hélène Brut NV ChampagneGood champagne from a small family grower near Epernay: lightly nutty in the mouth with appetising yeasty aromasGlass: | £: |
| 12 | Angas BrutRich creamy Australian sparkler. An interesting blend giving a soft and easy style   | £      |
| 14 | Gosset Brut ExcellenceThis fine, lively and imperious Champagne has a taste which is both fresh and delicate with mature fruity aromas                                     | £      |
| 15 | Gosset Grand Millésime 1996The Oldest Wine House in Champagne! A perfect balance between crispness and smoothness  | £      |

White Wines

- |           |  |         |
|-----------|--|---------|
| 17 | Grenache Blanc Le Caprice 2005Dry, clean and fresh. A lovely, easy drinking wine from the south of France.Glass:  | £:  |
| 18 | Norte Chico Sauvignon Blanc 2006Full and fruity with a refreshing dry finish, a classic Chilean Sauvignon Blanc good with white meats and seafoodGlass: | ££: |
| 19 | Sacred Hill Semillon Chardonnay 2004, AustraliaSoft citrus notes with a hint of tropical fruit accompanied by a zingy finishGlass:                      | £:  |
| 20 | Pinot Grigio Corte Giara 2005Medium bodied, fresh and lively, of bright and crisp acidity with smooth and rich perfumes of pears and granny apples                 | £       |
| 22 | Muscadet de Sevre et Maine sur lie Baronne de Sailorge 2003, FranceLight, crisp fresh white with delicious flinty-minerally overtones                              | £       |
| 23 | Piesporter Michelsberg Qualitatswein 2004Medium sweet quality wine. Fresh flavoured with a well balanced acidityGlass:                                  | £:  |
| 24 | Vouvray 2005, Pierre GueryOn the medium side, balancing clear honeyed Chenin fruit with some lovely lemon freshness  | £       |
| 25 | Picpoul de Pinet 2005, Coteaux de LanguedocCrisp, mouth-watering and refreshing with hints of citrus peel  | £       |
| 26 | Gewurtraminer 2004 Cave de Turkheim, AlsaceMost certainly not dry, with lots of aromatic fruit complexity on the nose, with stewed lychee flavours lingering long  | £       |
| 27 | Chablis 2004 Domaine d'EliseDelicious fresh apple notes, dry and fresh with a touch of zest on the finish  | £       |
| 28 | Santa Celina Pinot Gris 2005, ArgentinaA rich white with tropical fruit, honey and nectarine notes. A perfect wine to go with spicy dishes                         | £       |

